Details and Conditions of use:

The LTOT Theatre Organ Heritage Centre is open on the third Saturday of each month* for the facility of booking time on the Wurlitzer and Compton Theatre Pipe Organs for Private Practice between the hours of 10-00am and 4-00pm. There is a charge of £20.00 per hour for non LTOT members, (LTOT members £15.00) payable in advance and all bookings are subject to availability. Bookings on days/times other than the third Saturday can be submitted for approval by the Centre Management and are subject to volunteer availability.

Children under the age of 16 must be accompanied by an adult.

Practice time in the first instance is limited to 2 hours per person. This time may be extended on the day subject to availability and at the discretion of the Duty Manager, whose decision will be final.

The Lancastrian Theatre Organ Trust reserve the right to refuse an application or terminate an agreement without giving reason or notice.

LTOT Recording Policy:

Any person (s) seeking to record the organ for any use, either personal or commercial (including "You Tube" and other forms of social media) must have prior permission in writing. No recordings of any kind must be made until such approval has been obtained. Publication of any authorised recording must be approved by the Trustees before release.

Declaration:

I confirm that I understand the terms and conditions of The Lancastrian Theatre Organ Trust, including the recording policy and agree to abide by them.
